Sprint Reflection Questions

1. What was specifically accomplished during the past sprint?
   - Our team created clear roles for each member, ensuring a structured but dynamic approach to our project.
   - We engaged in a brainstorming session which resulted in a diverse set of project ideas tailored to our skills and interests.
   - To facilitate more efficient and immediate communication, we created a dedicated group chat on iMessage.
   - We held a comprehensive meeting where we outlined our objectives for the semester, aligning our team's vision and setting a solid foundation for our future work.
2. What challenges did you encounter?
   - The main challenge we faced was coordinating our schedules. Given our different academic and personal commitments, finding a mutual time for meetings was difficult.
3. Do you anticipate any specific challenges in the next sprint?
   - As we move into the next sprint, which focuses on defining project requirements, our main challenge will be to continue finding meeting times that accommodate everyone's schedules.

4. Is there anything you need from the staff right now?
   - At this stage, we are managing well with the resources and guidance provided. However, we may seek advice on balancing the project's scope with our time constraints as we further define our requirements.
